

Chinese American Cultural Association

中美文化協會

Dear Friends,

December 29, 2009

It's been many years since the last time Chinese American Cultural Association organized a celebratory event. Thus, we are glad to announce that we are once again hosting a party on 2010 Lunar New Year's Eve.

The turning of the year of the Tiger not only falls on Valentine's Day, but also happens to coincide with Presidents Day weekend. With this in mind, the party focuses on family value, Chinese tradition and romantic atmosphere. All friends and family are welcome to attend the festivities. There will be a special acknowledgement to the seniors (80 years and above). For the children, we have arranged a separate party room with their own activities throughout the night. Chaperons will be provided.

2010 Lunar New Year Celebration

Date/Time: February 13, 2010, Saturday, 6:00 PM – 11:00 PM (poster attached)

Place: Hyatt Regency New Brunswick, 2 Albany Street, New Brunswick, NJ 08901

The guests will be entertained by an evening of traditional Chinese folk dance, folk music, and dragon dance performances. Famous acrobats from mainland China are also invited to perform various specialties for your pleasure. One of the highlight performances is the Sichuan Opera Face Changing show. Special guest appearances will also be sprinkled into the festivities. CACA's 2010 celebration of the year of the Tiger is truly an occasion not to be missed.

Despite these exciting performances, guests will still have the opportunity to dance and socialize to a live band for at least two and half hours. Music will range from the seventies to the contemporary, from the Beatles to the Lady Gaga, from the country western hits to the Taiwanese pop favorites. The combination of old, new, fast and slow beats guarantees a good time for all.

In honor of the occasion, guests are encouraged to dress in traditional Chinese or matching couple's attire. Prizes shall be awarded for most outstanding outfits. We hope that the good spirits and joy of our wonderful guests will bring luck and prosperity to the dawn of the year of the Tiger.

May you and your family enjoy good fortune in the New Year.

With warmest regards,

Paul Tong
CACCA President 2008-2010